The 'delayed return' variant in Mozart [] sometimes used a variant type of sonata rondo form in which the themes of the recapitulation are rearranged: the opening bars reappear quite late, after most of the music of the exposition has been recapitulated, but before the final sequence of themes ('Codetta') that rounds off the section.

The development transitions into the, where all themes or theme groups from the exposition are now presented in the key. [A B] exp [C] dev [A B] recap In the notation, a single prime (') means 'in the dominant' and a double prime (") means 'in remote keys'.
